DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 13, 18 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The use of a composition is not patentable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter, which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 2, 4, 5, 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

4. Claims 4, 5, 9 and 10 contain improper Markush language.

5. Claim 2 contains the trademark/trade name Cloisite. Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe treated smectite clay and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-7, 9-12, 14-17, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kaide et al. 4,255,318.

8. Kaide et al. disclose polymer and hydrated metallic oxide in claim 1, aluminum hydroxide in claim 2, magnesium hydroxide in claim 3, bentonite, clay calcium carbonate, talc and their blends in claim 5 and the composition surrounding (coating) a cable in column 8, lines 30-57. Applicants' claims are not novel.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

11. Claims 1-12, 14-17, 19 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kaide et al. 4,255,318, in view of Bruns 3,576,388.

12. The contents of Kaide et al. have been discussed already. Bruns teaches polyvinyl chloride or neoprene flame resistant cable coating in column 2, lines 35-40, and fillers, namely bentonite, clay and calcium carbonate in column 3, lines 49-55. Since neoprene (chloroprene) and PVC are equivalent as wire and cable insulation as proven by Bruns, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art; at the time the invention was made, to flameproof the composition of Bruns with the fillers of Kaide et al.

13. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Peter Szekely whose telephone number is (571) 272-1124. The examiner can normally be reached on 7:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Tuesday-Friday.
